DEDICATION
Leon Orvis

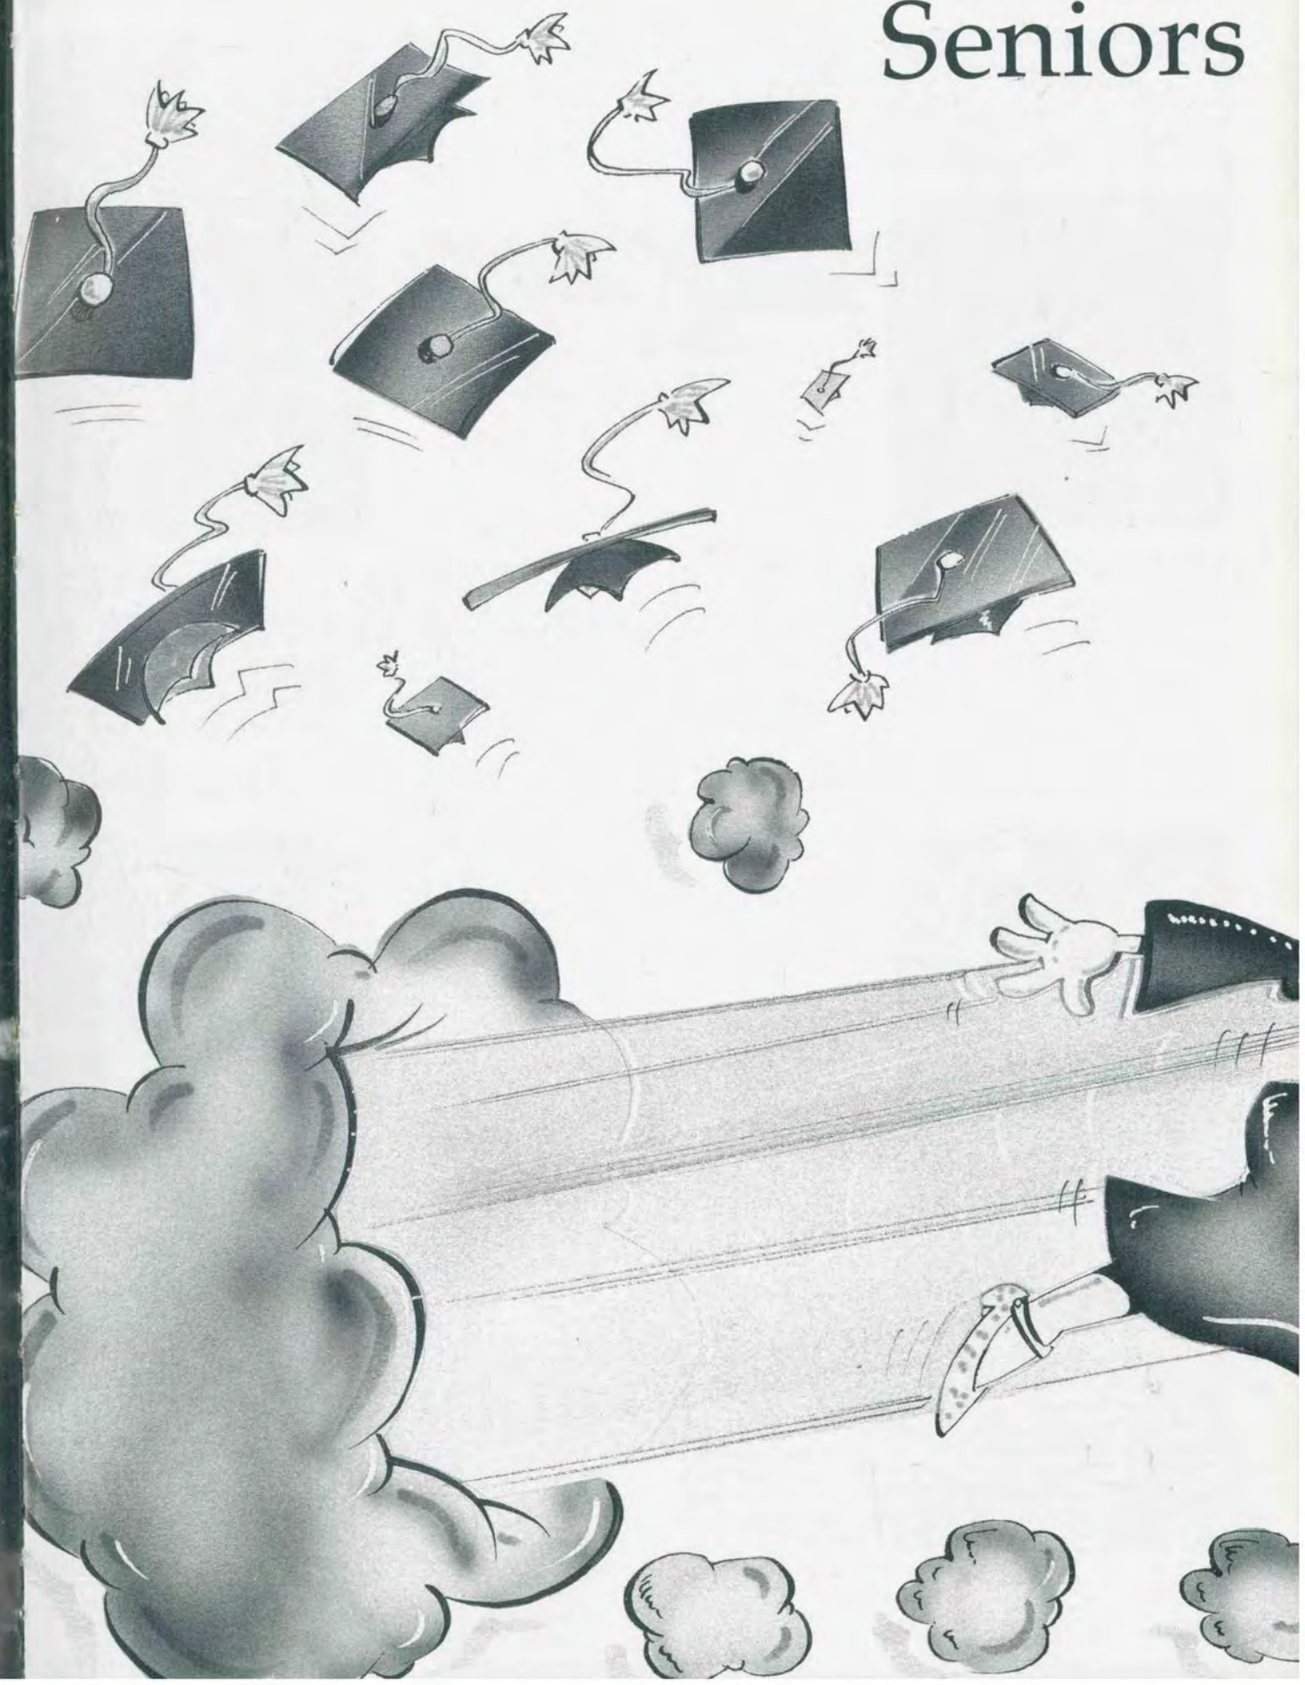

Because of his many contributions to Proctor Junior-Senior High School, the staff of the 1995 Proctorian dedicates this year's yearbook to Leon Orvis.

Mr. Orvis graduated from Proctor High School in 1961. He attended Castleton State College where he participated on the soccer team and subsequently was inducted into the Castleton State College Hall of Fame. After a career in minor league baseball, he began teaching at Wallingford High School. Twenty-seven years ago he joined the history and social studies faculty at Proctor. During his tenure here, in addition to his teaching responsibilities, he has coached state champion soccer teams, including one team that went all the way to the New England semi-finals. After a brief respite from coaching he initiated golf as a varsity sport at Proctor.

Sadly, Mr. Orvis is retiring this year. He will be sorely missed by both the students and the faculty. We wish him well in his retirement and thank him for his years of service and dedication to the school and community.

Membership in the National Honor Society is an honor conferred upon students in grades 10, 11 and 12 by the faculty in recognition of outstanding accomplishments in four areas: scholarship (85 minimum academic average), leadership, character, and service. The Redfield Proctor Chapter has been active in organizing and conducting honors assemblies and also encouraging students in grades 7 through 9 to work towards the National Honor Society standards, through its awards to outstanding students.

Student Council

This year's Student Council dedicated itself to being a service organization through such ventures as holding senior citizen's dinners and providing activities for the community. In addition to serving the community, it served the students of Proctor Jr.-Sr. High School by researching and providing information on school issues important to the students. Officers were elected in October as follows: president-Kris Graziano: vice-president-Kristi Elliott; treasurer-Stef Hill; secretary-Rita Thomas; and parliamentarian-Erin Ward.

Phantom Theatre's year included participation at the one-act regional drama festival, theatre sports at Rutland High School, and attendance at many plays throughout the state. With Castleton State College student Anthony Norton as director and volunteers Darlene Bailey and Cairle Ault on board as advisors, the theatre hopes to have many more workshops, hectic rehearsals, and great performances.

Flag Unit

This year the flag unit participated in five parades. They started out with only one returning member, but they all worked hard and had a successful year. They participated in the annual Halloween parade in Rutland, in which they received honorable mention for their reindeer costumes. This year, unlike in years past, they participated in the Joy to Christmas Parade in Glens Falls. The flag unit also participated in the Loyalty Day parade in Rutland and the All State parade that is held all around the state of Vermont. Our final parade was Memorial Day Parade in Proctor.

German American Partnership Program (GAPP)

Our GAPP students arrive in Germany.

The GAPP students had a busy year. During June and July of 1994 they took a three week trip to Germany. Seven students and advisors Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Clark stayed in Weimar. GAPP participants lived with German families, attended the local high school, and went on sightseeing tours in neighboring towns and cities such as Dresden and Leipzig. The last few days of the journey were spent in the Munich area.

During the fall of the 1994 year, German students from Weimar spent two weeks in Proctor with host families. Twelve enthusiastic students and two teachers from the German school had a great time taking bike tours through the countryside, carving Halloween pumpkins, and seeing Vermont's spectacular October foliage. All students, American and German, had an amazing time and will long remember their foreign exchange.

This year's Proctorian '95 staff worked hard all year long to produce the masterpiece you now hold before you. Fundraising, yearbook sales, and the creation of these pages kept the staff busy during much of their free time. They faced no easy task in sorting through all of this year's "Kodak moments" that are included in the yearbook.

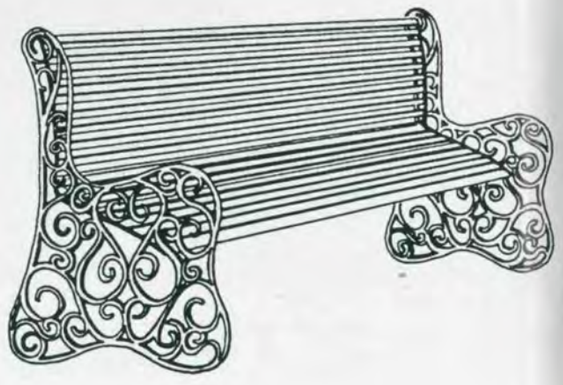

Under the supervision of Mrs. Sherman, members of the Proctorian '95 managed to collect and complete this album of 1994-1995's classes, activities, athletics, and graduating seniors. The efforts of the staff have clearly shown in their results.

Back center: C. Manfredi. Middle row: A. Barrett, J. Hier, G. Wenta. Bottom row: K. Trapeni, S. Zawistoski. Missing: M. Grunewald, advisor.

This is the third year of the Adopt-A-Street project at Proctor. The program provides opportunities for students to engage in community service through improvement of a street or area of the town. Students work with an advisory council of teachers, students, parents, and selectmen. Historical education and environmental preservation are main themes the students in the program study while working to improve their community.

Winter Carnival

The 1995 Winter Carnival was sponsored by the New American Schools Community Services and Support Team. The lack of heavy snows threatened to cancel the carnival, but Mother Nature came through and it was held as scheduled with only ice sculpture shelved.

Other events of the week included the Elementary School Winter Carnival, a community pot luck and talent show, maroon and white Spirit Day, Hat Day, and basketball. This year's winner was the Maroon Team, a combination of grades seven and eight. Second place went to the Class of 1995 and the Class of 1997 finished third. The winner was announced at the Winter Carnival dance sponsored by the senior class.

During the carnival, classes competed in the indoor games of volleyball, soccer, floor hockey, ping-pong, Scattergories, and Trivial Pursuit. Outdoor and ice games included snow soccer, tug-of-war, flag football, cross-country ski racing, co-ed hockey, and an ice relay race.

There was some nostalgia to the day. Former teachers Sam Ezzo and Bruce Hansen, who retired last year, returned to help, and Lee Orvis oversaw the ice competition for his 27th and last time.

Sports

Girls' Varsity Soccer

The Varsity Girls team coached by Bjarne Skjetne played a very tough schedule this year. The girls had only one returning senior but made up for it with great effort. This year was a trial year because all teams make the playoffs. Senior Kristi Elliot made the all MVL team and was the recipient of the Buzzell-Gallus award.

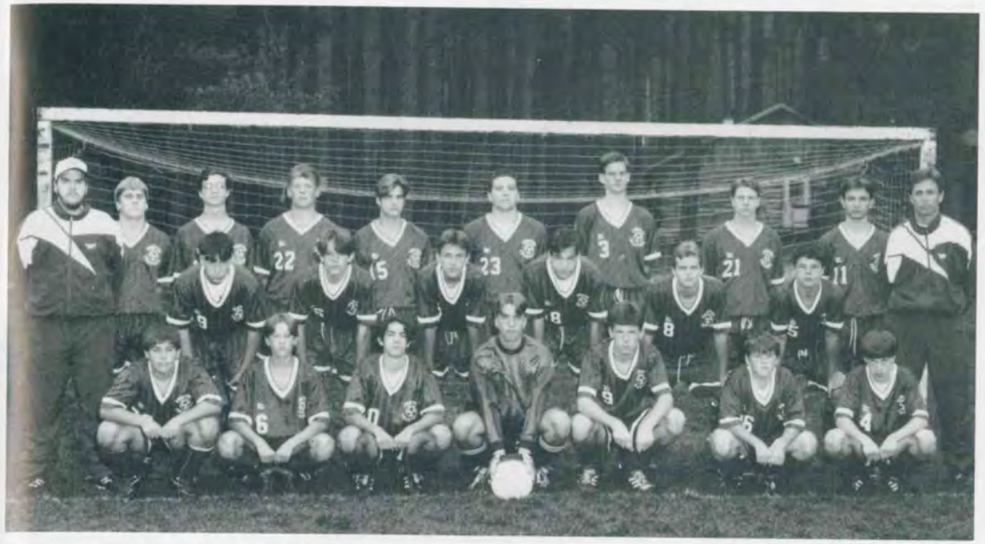

Boys' Varsity Soccer

The boys concluded a long, hard-fought season led by coach Robert Bliss. The wins that the boys got were very meaningful, especially the victory against Black River to claim the well-known Jug. The varsity boys were knocked out of the playoffs during the quarterfinals against West Rutland. Dana Rider was named to the MVL team and he also received the Buzzell-Gallus Award for his efforts.

Junior High Soccer

The junior high boys' soccer team was coached by Terri Champine. The coach put a lot of determination in the players' hearts. With the experience and spirit that these boys had, they should help the varsity team in the future.

During the 1994-1995 soccer season all of the girls had a really fun time. They learned how to work together as a team and get along. Since the junior high boys' team was small, one or two girls would join the boys' team each game. This gave the girls an extra opportunity to get used to a more challenging game. Over all, this was a very good soccer season for the girls.

Junior High Boys' Basketball

Top row: Coach Finnigan, R. Gee, C. Voight, J. Patch, P. Rider, J. Williams. Bottom row: N. Huizenga, E. Upson, B. Finnigan, M. Stattel, J. Roberts.

The junior high boys had an enjoyable and successful season. They learned a lot from Coach Finnigan. We look forward to seeing these young players learn and improve in the future.

Junior High Girls' Basketball

The seventh and eighth grade girls' team consisted of fifteen players. The two coaches were Michael Canty and Vic Regimbald. The girls attended two tournaments, one in Otter Valley and one in Middlebury.

Junior Varsity Girls' Basketball

The junior varsity girls, coached by Tammy Landon for a second year, showed a lot of improvement. Although they only won two games, they worked hard and played well, especially considering the low number of players. These girls will surely help the varsity in the future.

Junior Varsity Boys' Basketball

Top row: Coach T. Champine, G. Dahlin, C. Hogan, R. Goodrich, S. Roberts, J. Garvey. Bottom row: T. Beljavskis, J. Peters, J. McGann, J. Popailo

The junior varsity boys had a very good year under coach Terri Champine. They also had a very tough schedule. Hard work and a lot of determination will help the varsity level in the future.

Varsity Girls' Basketball

Top row: A. Prescott, R. Brough, D. Rider, M. Robertson, Coach B. Baccei. Bottom row: B. Salerni, M. Burke, K. Elliott, S. Zawistoski, C. Horner.

The varsity girls' basketball team, captained by senior Kristi Elliott, junior Stacie Zawistoski, and sophomore Meghan Burke, had a very productive season. The team won nine games in a tough schedule. They defeated Black River in the playdowns to make it to the quarter-finals where the were defeated by Canaan, the eventual league champion. The varsity girls are coached by Bruce Baccei. The girls are only losing two seniors this year, and look forward to a great season in 1995-1996.

Varsity Boys' Basketball

The varsity basketball team is a young team this year. Led by senior captains Steve Kuflik, Corey Prescott, Dana Rider, and Paul Skovira, the team went through tough obstacles and learned a lot under the new varsity coach Chris Hughes. The team struggled, but did not do too badly, losing some games by only a close margin. In the playdowns, they defeated Craftsbury to make it the quarterfinals where they lost to no. 1 seeded Twinfield.

Skiing

Senior Bryan Cupoli was the sole member of the Proctor ski team for the 1994-1995 season. Bryan joined the Rutland team in competition and represented PHS extremely well, placing first in two slalom races at Pico Peak. Bryan also qualified to compete in the state championship as a single performer. His fine performance represents Proctor as a top competitor in winter sports.

Cheerleading

Top center: S. Hill on shoulders: K. Lawrence, J. Jasmin, J. Markie, C. Chapman. Standing: B. Winkler, K. Graziano, M. Turner, Kneeling: J. Bossi, R. Bermudes, A. Corliss. Missing: Coach McGann.

The varsity cheerleading squad had an exciting year. They did fundraisers to earn money for new uniforms and attended a clinic to learn many new stunts and cheers. The girls choreographed their own routine for the regional competition in February, and performed very well there. The squad was coached by Gail McGann and the captain was Kristine Graziano.

Senior Banquet

This year's senior banquet was held at the Grist Mill. The evening was a great success and included a short program after the meal. Retiring teacher Lee Orvis wished the class well and offered advice. The evening concluded with a gift to each member of the Class of 1995.

Phantom Theatre

Standing: J. Dido, C. Gildersleeve, A. Sutherland. Standing. Middle: A. Keyser, M. Hurhula, B. Curtis, C. Dritschilo, T. Ault. Standing, leaning: T. Beljavskis, B. Winkler, Seated, Center: K. Graziano. Kneeling: Clockwise: B. Allenby, H. Dean, R. Pennington, K. Follett.

After long hours of grueling rehearsal under the direction of Castleton State College student Anthony (Tony) Norton, the cast of "This is a Test" was rewarded for their efforts. At the regional drama festival held in Montpelier, Proctor was declared one of the two winners of the festival, eligible to compete at the state level. At the two-day state festival, Proctor was the first to perform their play, and they received great praise from both the judges and the other students. Although Phantom Theatre was not chosen to be one of the two schools to go on to New England's, Proctor sent Megan Dean as a representative with the Vermont Youth Drama Council.

"On The Edge Of A Dream"

The theme of the 1995 prom, held at the Elks Club in Rutland, was "On The Edge Of A Dream." Many couples were present for the this special occasion and enjoyed the night of dancing and socializing. The prom court included representatives from each class who were chosen by a panel of chaperones. It was an enchanting night for all who attended as well as a successful fundraiser for the junior class.
